

2019 Sigcomm Travel Grant Application Form

1. Personal Info.

Name:

Gender:

Affiliation:

Country:

Email:

Academic Status (Student/Post-doc/Faculty):

Consider for GeoDiversity (Y/N, only for applicants from under-represented regions):

Consider for N2Woman (Y/N, only available for women):

Consider for NSF (Y/N, only available for students from US-based institutions):

2. Whether the applicant is the presenter of a paper, or has submitted a poster or demo (IF so, please input the paper/poster/demo ID, title, and author list); and whether the applicant has applied for the ACM Student Research Competition (SRC);

3. A brief summary of where the applicant is studying/working (provide a URL for a home page if one exists) and who the applicant's advisor/supervisor is; any additional information the applicant feels is relevant to support their case;

4. A brief summary of research interests and plans for future research;

5. Why the conference attendance is important to the applicant's research; and

6. A cost estimate of the trip, listing the cost of airfare, hotel, and the source of any price quote.

7. (Optional) A description of how the applicant will contribute to the diversity of the SIGCOMM conference.